About Dianne Ervine

Dianne Ervine has a Master of Social Work from the University of Toronto. Dianne has a special interest in human sexuality and has worked with a variety of groups dealing with sexual issues and relationships. She has chaired a committee for sexuality and disabilities in Adelaide and run workshops on sexuality for people working with the disabled. Dianne was a senior counsellor at Relationships Australia for 20 years and coordinated their sexual concerns service for 8 years. She also conducted their immensely popular "Coffee, Cake and Sex" seminars for couples. Dianne has had regular talk-back sessions on three different radio stations discussing sexual issues in Adelaide. She has also taught medical students in treating sexual concerns at the University of Adelaide and Flinders' University for several years.

In the last 5 years, Dianne has developed her own practice: Counselling & Education Services SA and specializes in relationship and sexual concerns. She has developed two workshops for Women entitled, "Awakening Sexual Desire for Women" and "The Big 'O' - All About Orgasms". Dianne has presented papers on each of these workshops at the World Sexuality Congress in Montreal and in Sydney. Dianne brings to any workshop a wealth of experience and enthusiasm which makes for engaging and interesting sessions.

Working with Women's Sexual Concerns

Friday 9th & Saturday 10th October 2009

Friday 4:00pm - 10:00pm

Saturday 9:30am - 5:00pm

This two day workshop is for counselling and health care professionals who work with women with various sexual concerns.

This workshop will explore the complexities of female sexual arousal and the contributing factors to various concerns.

It will also provide a range of treatment processes and techniques for:

- Managing vaginismus and painful intercourse
- Enhancing sexual desire and arousal
- Increasing the possibilities of regular orgasms
- Enhancing the whole orgasmic experience

This workshop will have an experiential component to learn the Breath, Energy & Mindfulness techniques which enable women to stay focused and be present in their body during sexual pleasuring.

Participants will be on the floor for some exercises, bring a pillow, yoga mat, blanket and wear comfortable clothing.

- Dianne will demonstrate a role play/counselling session for a woman with sexual issues.
- The workshop will conclude with a question and answer session.
- Workshop rate includes a training manual for each attendee.

PLACES FOR THIS WORKSHOP ARE LIMITED.

Please book early to avoid disappointment.
